RAKUGO PERFORMANCE

Leonia, March 16 - Rakugo, the ancient art of Japanese storytelling, will be performed by Kyoraku Sanyutei on Saturday, March 16 at 4 p.m. at the Presbyterian Church in Leonia located at 181 Fort Lee Road. Performed in Japanese with English subtitles, the program has universal appeal. Sanyutei's artistry transcends cultural differences and is guaranteed to delight both adults and children. Rakugo is humorous storytelling by a professional storyteller seated on his knees. There are several characters in each Rakugo story, and the solo performer takes on the role of a given character through his use of to provide high quality performances that are affordable and accessible to the public. Tickets at the door are $20 for adults and $15 for seniors over 65. A family friendly ticket price is offered with students under age 18 admitted free. The Leonia Chamber Musicians Society's program features the resonance of the piano, operatic, and rich melodies by Johannes Brahms and Mikhail Glinka and the exuberance of Wallingford Riegger. The program includes Riegger's Concerto For Piano and Woodwind Quintet, Glinka's Grand Sextet for Piano and Strings and Brahms' B Major Piano Trio. Refreshments are served after the concert, and the audience has an opportunity to meet and greet the musicians.
